NEW CHURCH IN WISNIMONING

Cornerstone Laid by Dr. Bickley, District Superintendent.

Wisnimoning Methodists laid the cornerstone of their new church at Comly and Jackson streets last Saturday in the presence of a large assembly including many ministers. The edifice will adjoin the old church, which has been outgrown by the congregation, which number two hundred or more members. Rev. George A. Bickley, district superintendent, who was in charge of the service, was assisted by Rev. Maria Grove, pastor of the Tacony Methodist church; Rev. W. E. P. Haas, of the Frankford church; and Rev. E. F. Hoffman, of Holmesburg, and Rev. Roger S. Harkinson, pastor of the Wisnimoning church.

The stone was laid in place by Mr. Bickley and Mr. Harkinson after a brief service, while the congregation sang a hymn.

The new church, which will cost $18,000, is being built of Holmesburg granite trimmed with white marble. Its dimensions are 47 by 55 feet, and it will seat 350 people.

The Wisnimoning Methodist church was instituted November 4, 1888, and the old church, which is of frame construction, was erected July 5, 1891. At the outset the membership was 15 and when the church was built it had increased to 30.

Absenteeism from the annual county institutes of the several counties of the Commonwealth will probably not be popular among the teachers of the State when the provisions of the new school code go into effect. The code provides a payment of $3 per day for attending institutes, and a forfeit of $3 per day for each day absent from the institute without proper excuse, the latter sum to be deducted from the salary of the teacher for the month following the institute. The code provides for the calling of the roll of the institute at least twice a day, in order that absentees may be noted.

VALLEY FORGE IMPROVEMENTS

Many New Drives are Being Constructed.

Road making is going on apace at Valley Forge. The Valley Forge Park Commission has opened a new drive from the point where the Camp road and the Gulph road meet to the Washington lane near Fort Huntingdon. The Commission has also built a road around the Wayne statue on the outer line.

The vestry of the Washington Memorial Chapel is opening the first road in the Washington Memorial Cemetery, and J. H. Dawson has had a force of men at work clearing the way and making the cuts and fills to give the road the required grades. This road begins at the cemetery gate, now in course of erection, and will open up a new and attractive stretch of scenery. The landscape architect, Thomas H. Sears, of Providence, R. I., is taking advantage of the natural beauties of the tract and will so arrange for the planting of other trees and shrubbery as to result in one of the most attractive places in the country. For the cemetery planned by the vestry will be made a park rather than a mere place of burial.

DRIVER HURT IN RUNAWAY

Louis McDowell, a milkman, of Frankford, who is president of the Kensington Driving Club, was cut and bruised last Sunday when a horse he was driving ran away on the Bustleton pike and he was thrown from the conveyance at Frankford avenue and Bridge street. The horse continued along the Bristol pike before he was finally stopped.

TWO WEEKS OF CRIMINAL COURT

The court has directed that the October term of court will consist of two weeks of criminal sessions and one week of civil sessions.

This order is due to the fact that an exceedingly large number of criminal cases have accumulated since the June sessions and the desire is to dispose of all at the October term. There are but 49 cases listed for trial in the civil court and for that reason it has been decided one week will be sufficient to dispose of all.

LYNNEWOOD RACES OCTOBER 5

Annual Meet on Widener Estate to Include Seven Races.

Practically all plans have been perfected for the annual complimentary race meet on Lynnewood Hall estate, the suburban home of the Wideners at Elkina Park, Thursday, October 5, and society folks and the neighborhood people are decidedly interested in the series of events. A general invitation to suburbanites along the Old York road, in Wynote, Ashbourne, Elkina Park, Melrose Park, Ogontz, Noble and Jenkintown, has been extended.

On the program this year will be seven events. Possibly the most interest will center in the Lynnewood challenge cup steeplechase. This event is for bona fide hunters duly registered by the Hunt Committee of National Steeplechase and Hunt Association. Entries are by subscription of $15 each to the winner with $500 added, of which $100 goes to second and $50 to third. The cup, valued at $500, will ultimately become the property of the owner winning it twice (not necessarily in successive years), but the cup must be contested for annually at a time and course approved by Joseph E. Widener. At last year's race meet the cup was won by Sumner H. Cross, of Jenkintown, with his chestnut gelding Zebeked. It is fully expected that "Mr. Cross will make an effort to become the permanent owner at the coming meet with the same entry. This race is of a spectacular type, for each rider is in full hunting costume. Many of last year's entries, which included Mrs. Payne Whitney's Web Carter, Antonio Devereux's Madder Lake, W. D. Disston's Rubens, and seven others are expected to be listed for the event this year.

WHITEMARSH HUNT RACES

The Whitemarsh Valley Hunt club will hold its annual fall race meet at its own track on the Erdemheim farm, near Chestnut Hill, on Saturday, September 30.

The card for the day contains seven events, four on the flat and three steeplechases. The feature event will be the race for the Whitemarsh valley challenge cup, valued at $300 and $200 purse, which calls for a grueling struggle over three and a half miles of stiff hunting country. Purposes of from $150 to $200 have been put up for each race.

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED

By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surface.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free. F. J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo, O.

Sold by Druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

BAPTISTS AT NORRISTOWN

North Philadelphia Association Will Hold Three Days' Session in Calvary Church.

The fifty-fourth annual session of the North Philadelphia Association of Baptist churches is to be held in the Calvary Baptist church, Norristown, on September 28, 29 and 30. The association, which now includes 45 churches, had its inception in Hatboro, in the home of Rev. George Hand. Its first anniversary was celebrated by a Norristown man, B. J. Hancock, who was the father of General Winfield S. Hancock. The body owns an album which contains the portraits of many of the men who have been active for over 50 years. Rev. T. C. Trotter was the clerk for 20 years. Rev. Miller Jones, of Philadelphia, and Rev. W. H. H. Marsh, of Germantown, are the only ministers living of the 47 present at the first session in 1858.

BURGLARS VISIT PASTOR

Rev. Arthur Phillips and Family Lose Their Saturday Morning Breakfast

Burglars who broke into the manse, adjoining the Presbyterian church, at Beverly, N. J., early on Saturday morning, occupied by the Rev. Arthur Phillips and family, left the preacher and his family without anything for breakfast.

Considerable clothing, several valuable lodge emblems and religious books were stolen.

ABANDONED TURNPIKES

County Commissioners are Responsible for Their Repair.

There seems still to be some confusion as to what authority is charged with maintaining freed turnpikes. Many people are of the opinion that it is the duty of the township supervisors to keep them in repair. This view is not correct. Prior to 1909 the county was charged with their maintenance, but in 1909 the State Legislature passed a law which directed that after a turnpike had been condemned and damages therefor had been paid, it should be properly repaired and maintained at the instance of the township, city and borough in which it is located.

This act, however, was repealed by the act of March 15, 1911. The result of the repeal is that the laws passed at the sessions of 1909 and 1907 have again become operative, and in consequence of which the liability is now imposed upon the county and supervisors have nothing to do with freed turnpikes. A great many such turnpikes are covered by the Sprout road act and as soon as such roads are taken over by the State, the State, instead of the county, will become liable for their maintenance. But until that time the counties are clearly liable for maintaining them in travelable condition.

CAT A GOOD SWIMMER.

Fishing along the Little Nesheam creek, E. Hines, of Philadelphia, saw a scrawny kitten on the opposite side of the stream. He called to it and was surprised when it jumped into the water and swam across to him. Mr. Hines rewarded it for its unusual feat, doubtless caused by hunger, by feeding it all his fish bait, with the exception of his helgamites, at which it turned up its nose.

NOTICE.

IN THE COURT OF COMMON PLEAS OF MONTGOMERY COUNTY.

On September 5th, 1911, was presented the petition of William W. Frasier setting forth a mortgage by John NeSmith and Margaret NeSmith, to Joseph and John Paul, dated March 21, 1910, recorded in Mortgage Book No. 15, page 294, for $1075, due six months after the date of said mortgage, and the petition of said Joseph and John Paul, dated May 21, 1911, for $300 pounds, due May 21, 1911, secured upon a tract of land in Morland Township, containing 3 acres 108 Perches (for description see petition); also the petition of Margaret NeSmith, to Joseph and John Paul, dated November 1, 1911, recorded in Mortgage Book No. 15, page 294, for $1075, due six months after the date of said mortgage, secured upon said premises; that on January 18, 1912 full satisfaction was entered on the margin of the first described mortgage by Joseph Paul, Administrator of Mary Paul, deceased; that on January 18, 1912 full satisfaction was entered on the margin of the second described mortgage by Joseph Paul, Administrator of Mary Paul, deceased; that as to the interest of Joseph Paul in said mortgage, no satisfaction appears of record; that as to the second described mortgage, full satisfaction was entered November 30, 1912 by Joseph M. Paul, one of the mortgagors, therefore said satisfaction is incomplete; that the petition of the owners of said tract of land charged with the lien of said mortgage, that a period of more than twenty-one years has elapsed since the priority of said mortgage became due and payable, that no payment has been made by or demanded from the present owners, or so far as can be ascertained, from their predecessors in title on account of said mortgage; that no sufficient release, acquittance or acknowledgment of the payment of the same is of record in Montgomery county. Therefore the Court directed notice by the Sheriff in accordance with the act of May 15, P. L. 44, and notice is hereby given to Joseph Paul, John Paul, Joseph Paul, Administrator of Mary Paul, deceased, Margaret NeSmith, Joseph Paul, deceased, Mary Paul, deceased, Joseph Paul, deceased, John Paul and Joseph M. Paul, mortgagors, their heirs, executors, administrators and assigns, and to any and all parties interested therein, to appear in said Court on Monday, October 16th, 1911, at 10 o'clock A. M. to show cause why a decree should not be made discharging said premises from the encumbrance of said mortgage as prayed for.

4¢ A DAY PER ACRE

Earns $40 to $400 a Year, NET!

The Land We Are Now Selling at $125 an Acre Will Be Worth $250 an Acre in a Year's Time, If Properly Developed
Easy Terms—10 Years to Make Payments

The land we are offering is the famous Sacramento Valley, California, stands second-to-none in the world in richness and fertility. It is made still more productive by irrigating from the nearby Sacramento River. Backing this vast irrigating achievement is the Sacramento Valley Irrigation Company, at the head of which stands the well-known banker, W. S. Kahn, of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

Here Is Your Chance

Don't waste valuable years trying to make a barren eastern farm produce a mere living for you. "Go West" now. Horace Greely's maxim is fraught with new meaning. "In the golden valley of the Sacramento" is a farm awaiting you that will not only produce a living for you, but will make you independent, free—will give you a new meaning to home and happiness.

The Land Works for You Ten Months

Out of Twelve There is no let up. Crop after crop can be planted and harvested. You can grow anything from alfalfa to oranges, grapes, etc. Here is a land of sunshine. More sunbath days than Southern Italy. A land where there are no damaging frosts, no heavy snows, no blizzards, droughts, washouts or other drawbacks common to the East. And these are not mere statements—we don't ask you to accept our say-so. We give you herewith actual crop figures based on actual production of farms in the same neighborhood. Read what they are producing. You can own a farm that will prove as profitable.

Net Profit Per Acre

Almonds, $40 to $100; Apricots, $50 to $150; Alfalfa, $40 to $80; Apples, $100 to $250; Beans, $60 to $100; Blackberries, $250 to $300; Cherries, $100 to $225; Sugar Beets, $80 to $75; Figs, $100 to $200; Grape Fruit, $75 to $200; Grapes, $50 to $150; Lemons, $100 to $225; Logan Berries, $250 to $400; Oranges, $100 to $200; Olives, $50 to $200; Potatoes, $50 to $150; Peaches, $100 to $200; Prunes, $100 to $200; Plums, $100 to $200; Strawberries, $150 to $300; Tomatoes, $50 to $150; Walnuts, $100 to $200. Oranges, figs and lemons frequently yield as high as $2,500 to $5,000 per acre.

Here Is What We Offer YOU

This land is sold at $125 and upwards per acre. There's not the slightest doubt but that one year's development will double its value. Irrigated California farms are selling at $200 to $1000 and they are not superior to ours. We will sell it to you at terms which figure out to GET OUR ILLUSTRATED BOOK—It represents a great outlay of money, for we have spared no expense to make this work exact and convincing. To assure your own interest we ask you to send 10 cents for this book. This book may mean a fortune to you—it will surely mean future happiness, independence, joy of living and comfort for yourself and family should it decide you to buy a farm in Sacramento Valley.

4 Cents Per Day Per Acre

Think of it—and we give you 10 years to pay it if you want it. We ask a first year payment of $15 an acre. For the second year, $10 an acre, and so on until the principal amount is paid. In the ten years' time the total of the payments on each acre, plus the interest on your deferred payments, amounts to only a cent a day. Absolute title to both land and water rights goes with the fourth payment—so that the property thereafter stands in your name.

One Share of Canal Company Stock Goes With Each Acre Purchased

When you have made the payment that gives you title to your farm, you are also given shares—one for each acre purchased—in the canal company, so that upon completion of payments the irrigation works become the property of the owners of the farms.

Water Rights Are Permanent

These rights cannot be reclaimed, having been granted by the State of California and confirmed by Act of Congress. Water comes from the Sacramento River, the largest river west of the Sierra, so the supply is inexhaustible.

Now Is the Time to Buy

Farms are being taken up fast. Their purchasers are taking possession rapidly, so to secure the choicest location, we suggest that you make your purchase as soon as possible. You can't make a mistake in putting your money into this land, so that we feel free to urge you to act now. By proper development and working your crops in rotation, you can make the farm pay for itself. The market is right at your door and

Crops Are Sold As Soon As Harvested
There is an insatiable market for the products of Sacramento Valley. Crops are turned into money at once and at big prices. Sacramento is only 30 miles distant; San Francisco only 150 miles. The main line of the Southern Pacific Railroad runs through the entire property. The Sacramento River is nearby and open to freight navigation the entire year. Good roads run each side of every acre tract.

Let Us "Show You"

We will gladly send a representative to see you from our nearest office. He will cheerfully explain all about freight and packing charges, so that you can compare our advantages for you should you decide to buy a farm from us.

Hathoro Home Happenings

Beatrice Friday spent several days at Atlantic City, N. J.

Dr. and Mrs. C. G. Dager motored to Atlantic City for the week-end.

The monthly meeting of the school board was held on Monday night.

Harry Eisenbrey and wife, of Philadelphia, were visitors in the borough on Sunday.

Miss Ellen I. Morgan has been spending some time with Lancaster county friends.

The last two weeks to pay your borough and school taxes before the 5 per cent. goes on.

Samuel G. Schuman is having his home repaired and also will have the exterior repainted.

Mrs. Annie Johnson, of Buckmanville, was an over Sunday visitor with relatives in the borough.

Mechanics are at work putting the dwelling on Ashland farm in good order for its new owner.

Mr. and Mrs. Penrose Robinson entertained out of town guests to dinner last Saturday evening.

Miss Ruth Evans entertained Miss Ruth Meehan, of Germantown over Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Harry Campbell, of Philadelphia, formerly of the borough, visited friends here on Tuesday.

Charles Watson and family, of Newtown, spent Sunday as the guests of their father, Edwin S. Ritchie.

John B. Quirk and family have returned from Somers Point, N. J., where they spent the summer at their cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Walsley, Miss Elizabeth Walsley and Ralph Wilson enjoyed a visit to Atlantic City on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Williams spent Saturday and Sunday at Atlantic City, where they visited Chief and Mrs. Lever.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Haring and son, Harrison, of Hatboro, spent Sunday in Doylestown, with Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Tettemer.

The McMullen amusement company is arranging to give a moving picture show each Saturday night in Loller Hall, beginning October 7.

Mrs. Laura Buckman and son, Merwin, and Miss Amy Walton, spent from Saturday to Monday at Wildwood, N. J., the guests of friends.

The beautiful day on Sunday increased the attendance at churches. Everyone wanted to be out. Walking, driving and motoring were all popular.

Miss Ella S. Hart, who has been on an extended visit to Walter Beans and family, of Denver, Colorado, returned to her home on Byberry avenue, this week.

Mrs. A. S. Logan and daughter, Anna, and Mrs. C. C. McNair spent Wednesday in Moorestown, N. J., as the guests of Rev. and Mrs. A. D. Dillon and family.

The M. E. Mite Society was entertained by Mr. Percy and wife at the Orange Home on Monday evening. The attendance was unusually large and a very pleasant evening was spent by those present.

A number of friends of Mrs. Jennie E. V. Walton met at the home of her sister, Mrs. Mary Walton, on Monday evening, as a farewell surprise.

Mrs. Walton left on Tuesday for Harrisburg, where she will make her home with her son, Dr. C. Vincent Hart.

Walter Rothwell returned on Saturday from Niagara Falls and Toronto.

Mrs. Rothwell accompanied friends from Toronto down the St. Lawrence, through the Thousand Islands to Montreal and Quebec, returning home by way of Lake Champlain and Lake George.

There are about 225 pupils in the borough schools and more applications for admission are being received. All the seats in the High school are filled, and in the primary room one teacher has 56 pupils. When the schools opened 15 little tots began their school work.

Former Congressman Irving P. Wanger and his son, of Norristown, were in the borough Friday afternoon of last week, looking up evidence and getting the record of James Jamison.

Dr. Charles M. Seltzer is cutting his third crop of alfalfa this week. It is 24 inches high. Alfalfa is a very valuable food for horses, cows, horses, etc., and when three crops can be harvested in one year, it looks as if it would pay our farmers to plant more of it and make a study of it. Dr. Seltzer has also a fine crop of silo corn, which was planted on the 24th of July. This corn is eight feet in height. In 1910 Doctor has over 60 acres of corn planted this year. He is now producing over 700 quarts of milk per day and expects by the first of January to increase his output to 1,000 quarts per day.

The entertainment given last Saturday evening in Loller Hall for the benefit of the fire company, was largely attended, many having to stand. The entertainment was one of the best ever given in the hall. Those who took part were: Carl Garner, Norman Kearns, Miss Marion Clayton, Mrs. Paul Jones, Miss Elizabeth Sella, Jones, Jr., Bert Clayton, Thomas R. Truman, Mrs. May Ellis, Miss Marion Hollowell, Herbert W. Mattinson, Miss Mary Stone, Harry Schaffer, Dr. Fillman, Master Tom Truman, E. J. Jones, Miss Elsie Jones, Earl Jones, the piano duo were given by Misses Clara J. MacNair and Angie Jones, also Miss Edith Gehman and Alice Sheldon, piano solos also by the two latter.

A. S. Shelby's sale of Nebraska colts Saturday afternoon, at the Railroad House, Doylestown, was one of the most largely attended horse sales ever held there. It is estimated that 800 people attended the sale and the twenty-eight colts sold averaged $4, $160 and $187. Look out for reports of runaway accidents, when farmers begin to drive these colts on the public roads, frequented by automobiles.

WAR ON CHESTNUT TREE BLIGHT

State Experts Investigating, Propose no Remedy, Except Cutting Down Infected Trees—Wilmer Atkinson Says Small Worm is the Cause.

The State campaign to exterminate the chestnut tree blight is slowly getting under way. The instruction camp, which had been conducted in the vicinity of Martic Forge, Lancaster county, for the training of men to combat the disease, will break up this week and a dozen or more of the field agents have begun work to uproot the pest.

The campaign is being conducted under the auspices of the State Chestnut Blight Commissioners, who have opened offices in the Morris Building in the executive charge of Samuel B. Detweiler.

The commission is composed of the following: Winthrop Sargent, Harold Pierce, Samuel Bodine, George Craig and Theodore K. Ezy.

It is proposed to fight the blight until the foliage drops, after which, according to experts, the blight is a difficult matter to start the pest.

The corps started work in the southern part of York county, where it came to the Franklin, Fulton and Susquehanna counties. The State will be divided into zones, so as to make the work more systematic.

Complete data will be obtained and the infected trees removed. As far as possible it will be the aim of the men in the employ of the commission to induce land owners to destroy the trees on their properties and to work in conjunction with the commission.

The men who are doing the scouting work, for such it is, received their instructions from Professor Franklin J. Collins and Deputy State Forestry Commissioner Irvin C. Williams.

WORM CAUSE OF BLIGHT, SAYS WILMER ATKINSON

Wilmer Atkinson, the well-known horticulturist, of Three Tuns, in a recent public letter, takes the same ground as Thomas D. Candy, the Langhorne florist—that the blight is caused by a tiny worm and denies the fungus theory of some scientists.

Mr. Atkinson says: What is known as chestnut tree blight is caused by a tiny white worm, from 1/3 to 1/4 of an inch in length, which burrows through and through the bark and completely destroys it. The bark being dead, the decay of the tree quickly follows. The borer grows to nearly an inch in length. The word "blight" might as well be dropped, because the damage is not caused by a fungus, but by an insect, in the color and form above described.

Of the parent insect, which lays the egg from which the worm is hatched, I cannot knowingly speak, but it is probably an imported insect, brought here from a foreign country with infected nursery stock, the same as was the case with the San Jose scale insect. The State Chestnut Commission should go after it and run it down if it can, which is not likely.

Apparently the other insect deposits its eggs in the narrow fissures in the bark of the tree where it is found, through which the worm may quickly gnaw its way.

A spray of arsenate of lead applied at the right spot at the right time might kill the tiny worm as soon as it begins to bore and it might not. This would depend upon whether it eats or only bores at first. One thing is certain, no spray can be effective in preventing the entrance of these tiny insects into the bark of forest trees and their ultimate destruction. Therefore unless Nature comes to the rescue and provides a remedy, it is not likely that any will be found.

The most disgusting thing about it is that, after the chestnuts are all killed, some other variety of tree will be attacked. The mother insect seems to prefer the chestnut, but doubtless she has a second choice, which fact will be developed in due time.

If our native insect-eating birds were protected and encouraged, as they should be, they might furnish a remedy for this pest. The chestnut alone might well take this hint and use part of its $250,000 appropriation to conserve the birds.

I have some specimens of the borer at my office, which may be seen by anyone interested.

FARMERS' FAIR AT TORRESDALE

Races and Exhibits on the Morrell Farm.

General Morrell will lend his race track, Knights and Red Lion roads, Torresdale, for the second annual fair of the farmers and growers of the northeast section of Philadelphia and the lower end of Montgomery and Bucks counties, which will be held this Saturday.

It is expected that fully 10,000 men, women and children will participate in this event. General Morrell, who always takes an interest in the welfare of his neighbors in Torresdale, and stalls at the disposal of the committee which is arranging the fair, and has also donated several silver cups which are to be awarded as prizes.

The big feature of the day will be the races in the afternoon. There will be six events; trotting and running, and a big field is looked for in each.

There will also be horse and field games for animals used on farms, and many farmers have already indicated their intention of displaying their teams in various forms. Farm wagons and implements will also form part of the exhibits.

THIEVES MAKE BIG HAUL

Steal Money, Jewelry, etc., from Dil-worth Residence—Value of Plunder Will Reach Nearly $2000.

Returning from an automobile trip shortly after midnight, May morning, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Dilworth found their Jenkintown home, at 309 West Avenue, ransacked of jewels and valuables. They had been away all the evening, and the thieves seemingly took plenty of time to loot the second floor, molesting nothing in the other apartments.

The theft was reported to the Jenkintown authorities, and a search and investigation the list of plunder secured has been obtained.

According to Chief Jensen, the total value of the loot is about $2,000. The list includes:

One gold watch, belonging to Mr.
Dilworth; one gold watch, belonging to Mrs. Dilworth; one gold and platinum watch chain, one gold chain, one gold and platinum fob, three gold pins, six gold buttons, one silver purse, one dozen silver forks, one dozen silver knives, one diamond brooch, one topaz brooch, one necklace, one cam-ee ring, one diamond, emerald and ruby ring, one gold band ring, collection of old coins, value not given; collection of stamps, value not given; $35 in money, $25 in money, from small bank; one gold and silver chain, one half dozen pairs women's silk stockings, one hunting knife, one Smith & Wesson revolver, black leather bag, one silk kimono, one white mesh satin evening gown, one satin evening gown, one jade stick pin, one diamond stick pin, one gold brooch, with pearls; one diamond stick pin, one gold barrette, one dozen silver spoons, gold studs, one silver purse, one silver mounted card case.

The thief or thieves gained entrance at the second floor door, belonging to a porch roof to break open a window.
The search on the second floor was most complete, and nothing in the line of the loot was left.

Mr. Dilworth is an oil merchant, with Philadelphia offices at 134 S.
Front street. He is an enthusiastic motorist and is a member of several motoring organizations. About a year ago his garage at Jenkintown was broken into in broad daylight and a $4,000 car stolen. It was some time later before the car was traced to Chicago, and recovered in that city when one of the thieves tried to dispose of it. The man was captured and is now serving a term.

ANOTHER ROBBERY.

Mrs. Eugene Schloss, of No. 249
Mather avenue, reported to the police that when she returned to her home after visiting in New York, several pieces of jewelry were missing. The valuation is several hundred dollars.
The Jenkintown authorities have made an investigation and there is no evidence of a "break-in." They incline to believe that the thief entered through a window.

Mrs. James Turner entertained on Saturday at bridge.

Mrs. C. D. Musser was the guest of city friends, recently.

Loss of Appetite

Is loss of vitality, vigor or tone, and is often a forerunner of prostrating disease.

It is serious and especially so to people that must keep up and doing or get behindhand.

The best medicine to take for it is the great constitutional remedy.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Which purifies and enriches the blood and builds up the whole system.

Get it today in usual liquid form or chocolate tablets called Sarsatabs.

STOLE HORSE IN AMBLER

Stranger Hired Horse and Failed to Return.

Search is being made by the police for a man who got away with a horse from Livernyman C. W. Gerhart, of Ambler. He said he expected a load of broncho ponies to arrive at Ambler station, for which he would return by 10 o'clock to take care of his stock when it arrived. He did not show up, however, and Mr. Gerhart's suspicions were aroused at once. Inquiry at the freight station revealed the fact that no horses were expected there. Search was at once commenced by telephone for the stranger and the horse. He was traced through Springfield, North Wales and as far as Kulpsville. Notices were also telephoned to other places. The man was slightly more than five feet tall, of about 145 pounds in weight, 40 years old, sandy mustache, and very red hair. He wore a soft black hat, but had a soft Panama hat in his pocket, wore overalls and a jacket, but a very poor pair of shoes.

Letters of administration have been granted in the estate of Elizabeth Worthington, of Moreland, to Samuel H. H. Value of personality $100, no real estate.

FRIENDS' CONFERENCE

Members of Executive Committee Conclude Meeting.

Many Friends attended the semi-annual meeting of the Executive Committee of the General Conference of the Friends' Association on Saturday at Fifteenth and Race streets, Philadelphia. Joseph R. Gilliam presided at the committee meetings.

Arabella Carter of Hyberty, who acted as secretary, reported that the associations belonging to the conference embracing localities in Pennsylvania, New York, New Jersey, Delaware, Virginia, California, Indiana, Ohio, Illinois and Canada, represented.

Among other interesting reports Robert Pyle of West Grove, presented that of the Woodbrooke Committee, stating that nine young people attended that school during the year. The committee voted $100 for the Woodbrooke building fund.

Archie Pyle of Lansdowne, reporting the work of the Committee of Seven, suggested the advisability of framing a constitution, and a committee for that purpose was appointed with instructions to report six months hence.

An invitation from Mount Hope Association to hold an annual conference at that place November 13 was accepted. The following Committee on Programming was named for that occasion: George H. Nutt, Harriet Cox McDowell, Joseph R. Gilliam, Louis H. Dunn, Joseph R. Lippincott, Robert Pyle and Eliza H. Worrell.

Among others who took part in the discussions were Joseph R. Gilliam, Arabella Carter, Mary Rye, Abbie Rice, Frederick P. Supple, Lewis V. Smedley, Eliza H. Worrell, Joseph R. Lippincott, Harriet McDowell, Katherine Stevenson, Louis H. Dunn.

WILLOW GROVE

HORSE THIEVES AT BREADY'S.

During Sunday night the John K. Bready family, on the Doylestown pike showed here were aroused by the barkings of their dogs, which seemed to be chasing something across the fields. No one arose till morning, when on going to the barn they found one of their horses bridled ready to be taken from the stable. It is supposed that the man who intended stealing the horse was frightened off by the dogs.

HENRY SPECHT'S OPERATIONS.

Henry Specht, contractor and builder, of Willow Grove, is a very busy man at present, having a number of large operations on hand. At present he has men working on the following places: Stone and brick house on Summit avenue, Jenkintown, for Mr. Taylor; twin house on Updown road, same place, for Miss Traut; house for David Fahre, on Montgomery avenue, Elkins Park, of terra cotta; a pair of houses on Rock Lane, Ogontz, for Caleb Fox; a cottage on Allegheny avenue, for one on Menlo avenue, Glenside, for Harry I. Wright; a pair of houses for Mrs. Bissling, on the Keightley tract, Willow Grove; house at Fort Washington for Henry McCadd; addition to H. Nathan's house at Rydal; pair of houses for James Wagerman at Crestmont.

Harry Maddock visited his father, in Davidsville, last Friday, who was ill. Mrs. Alice Maddock has returned from visiting friends in Davidsville.

Frederick and Raymond Miller were visitors at Atlantic City on Sunday last.

FIREBUG BURNS BIG BARN

Midnight Blaze Destroys Buildings of Samuel L. Gross.

Before one o'clock last Sunday morning the barn on Samuel L. Gross' farm in Doylestown township was discovered to be on fire, and within an hour the big building, which was one of the finest in that section of the country was in ruins, with a loss which is estimated to be about $3000, partly covered by insurance.

Abraham Hilstad and family first discovered the blaze and it was through their telephone call that Mr. Gross learned of the fact that his barn was afire.

The fire, which started in the hay mow is believed to have been of incendiary origin and burned so rapidly that even though there was an early alarm the gasoline engine, horse rake, fodder cutter, thrasher and other machinery on the barn floor were burned.

Four horses, ten cows and everything else in the big barn was saved.

The fire spread to a wagon house and also, both of which were destroyed. But a corn crib was saved by being overturned.

BOY ON ROLLER SKATES

Overcomes Farmer Who Daged Autos, Motorcycles and Horses.

Alexander Richards, 57 years old, a farmer of Olney road, near Tabor Crossing, went to town last Monday afternoon and, after crossing Broad street at Allegheny avenue, stopped at the curb to tie his shoe. As he stopped a boy on roller skates struck him, and he fell. The boy, however, did not injure him so that he had to be carried to the Samaritan Hospital.

He suffered a badly lacerated scalp and a contused knee, and it was several hours before he could leave the institution. He said that in crossing Broad street he had expected the usual vigilance and had in his passage across successfully dodged four automobiles, but he was not so successful in dodging a boy on roller skates.

OF INTEREST TO FARMERS.

TIMELY TOPICS OF PLANTS AND PESTS DISCUSSED WEEKLY.

By H. A. Surface, State Zoologist of Pa.

THE GRAY BLISTER BEETLE.

One of the newer insect pests reported to Prof. H. A. Surface, Economic Zoologist of the State Department of Agriculture, is the Gray Blister Beetle which is found feeding upon clover, alfalfa and garden plants, especially asters. Prof. Surface recommends the following unique method of destroying them in his reply to an Armstrong county farmer:

"One good way to get rid of the ash-gray blister beetle is to throw down an armful of straw here and there, and drive them into it, and set fire to it. You can easily drive them with bunches of switches. After they are scared in this way, those that remain alive will leave the field."

These were one of the species formerly called the Old-fashioned Potato Beetle or Potato Bug. I have often seen them cleaned out of potato vines by this kind of treatment. Just enough straw was scattered between the potato rows to burn when set on fire without giving enough heat to burn the vines beside it. When the wind was blowing up or down the row, the beetles would hop into it, and it was then fired in different places. Those that survived the treatment disappeared from the field.

They can also be killed by arsenical spraying, but I cannot recommend this in the clover field on account of the danger of poisoning the clover."

DIRECTIONS FOR HANDLING THE APPLE CROP.

Now that the time for picking the apple crop is near at hand, Prof. H. A. Surface, Economic Zoologist of Pennsylvania, is making the following brief directions to the owners of State Model Orchards, telling them how to pick, grade and pack their fruit so as to realize the greatest returns for their efforts in growing fancy fruit:

PICKING.

All fruit should be most carefully hand-picked when fully grown, and red varieties well colored. Too early picking sacrifices high quality of color, and also the fruit spurs, while too late reduces the keeping qualities. The exact time of picking must be determined by the full development of the fruit, and an occasional specimen beginning to soften or show the yellow color, or drop from the tree. In picking, the apple should be grasped in such a manner that the forefinger touches the stem, and then by a rolling and bending movement the apple will be unlatched at the fruit spur. Careless and hurried picking often destroys the fruit spur or pulls out the stem, breaking the skin at the basin and otherwise bruising it. Injured fruit will not keep so well, and its value is thus reduced.

A padded half bushel basket with a swing handle is the best receptacle into which to pick the fruit. Leaving apples in the basket, with the hot sun beating upon them, reduces their keeping qualities. Instead they should be immediately cooled after picking, especially during warm weather.

GRADING.

To aid in assorting apples to uniform sizes for boxing, a sizing board with a row of holes will be helpful. These holes should be about 2 1/2 in. to 3 1/2 in. in diameter, representing the different sized apples that are put into boxes. The grader will soon become able to dispense with the sizing board except when in doubt. The apples are held up to the hole, but never dropped through. An ordinary table covered with a layer of canvas or soft cloth can be used on which to spread the apples in grading. Winter varieties can be assorted into four grades:

1st. The finest for boxes: This should consist of well colored and finest fruit of high quality varieties, free from blemishes, and of fine finish and uniform size.
 2nd. First grade for barrels: Next sizes to box apples, free from blemishes and bruises, and of uniform size throughout the barrel.
 3rd. Second grade for barrels: Second grade includes the smaller sizes of sound fruit free from blemishes.
 4th. Culls: These include all the rest of the fruit, and usually should not be sent to market to compete with the better grades, but used for evaporating, canning and cider.

BOX PACKING.

The art of packing apples in boxes is not easily described in writing, but must be learned by teaching and practice. The object is to adapt the styles of arrangement of the apples according to size so that the box is filled, the fruit projecting slightly above the top of the box at the ends, and about an inch in the middle. When the ends are nailed the bulge in the middle is distributed between the top and bottom.

The standard apple box of the West is 10 1/2 x 11 1/2 x 18 inches; the California special box 10 1/2 x 12 x 18 inches, all inside measurement. The ends are made of boards 3/4 inch thick, the sides 3/4 inch, and the top and bottom 1/2 inch. There are cleats on the ends of the top and bottoms.

STYLES OF PACKING.

I. Four layers of 6 boxes of four apples each, 96 apples in the box.
 II. Four layers of 8 rows of four apples each, 128 apples in the box.
 III. Five layers of 7 rows of five apples each, 175 apples in the box.
 IV. Five layers of 10 rows of five apples each, 250 apples in the box.
 V. Three apples in the first row, two in the second, and three and two alternating to complete the tier. The second tier starts with two apples in the first row, placed in the intervals of the three of the bottom row, three in the second, etc. The third tier is like the first, 213 apples in the box.
 VI. In the style of packing three apples in each row alternate with the adjoining row. Each tier alternates with the tier below, so that the apples in the third tier are directly above those of the first, and those of the fourth tier above the second, 72 apples fill the box.

BARREL PACKING.

The standard American barrel contains three bushels, and measures 17 1/2 inches across the ends, 23 1/2 inches across the center, and has staves 23 1/2 inches long. Second hand sugar barrels and smaller or "snide barrels" shall not be used.

Take out the bottom head, and stand the barrel with top head down so as to pack the top end first. A corrugated paper or some other cushion to protect the head layer should be laid in position, and on this placed a fancy paper cap. Pack the layer of "facers" stem ends down in circular rows, fitting tightly together. A second layer of apples of the same kind is similarly placed in the depressions of the first. The facers are the same grade as the rest of the apples in the barrel, but are of the best colored. Over the facers pour gently a half bushel of apples at a time, shaking the barrel to settle the fruit. Fill the barrel to just above the ends of the staves, facing with a padded head to prevent crushing. Press down and drive the hoops into place and nail the head in.

Norristown School Board is considering night schools and lunches for high school pupils.
